The story started with William McFarland, who set up the initial farming operation. His son, Archibald McFarland, followed in his footsteps, growing food for his family and adding grain to sell..

In 1960 the idyllic Silver Bell Ranch, a 900 acre mountainside retreat was purchased from Taylor Burton by Arthur Christiansen. He was president of the Utah Home Builders Association. He hoped to create an oasis and summer home. He sold small lots around his ranch and played a large role in developing the area. At the time sledging and tobogganing was a winter tradition along the foothills of the ranch. Plans began to construct two chairlifts and a number of ski runs. In 1968, a small ski area in the heart of Utah's powder country was born.

Nordic Valley, nestled deep in the heart of the Wasatch Mountains, just a few miles from the restaurants, entertainment and comforts of the booming town of Ogden.

Nordic Valley is famous for its ski school, intermediate and advanced slopes, and family friendly atmosphere. Leading up to the 2002 Olympic Winter Games, the Austrian downhill skiers used Nordic Valley as a training venue before their events.

The concept of the Mongolian BBQ is based on the ways of the ancient nomadic warriors, the Mongols, who prepared and ate the foods that were available to them as they moved endlessly around the countryside. Since they couldn't carry extra utensils, they would build large bonfires, place their shields on top to create a grill, and chop the food with their swords while cooking. The dining experience is unique with only one menu item offered in an endless variety of combinations.

the ways of the ancient nomadic warriors, the Mongols, who prepared and ate the foods that were available to them
as they moved endlessly around the countryside.
Since they couldn't carry extra utensils, they would build large bonfires, place their shields on top to create a grill, and chop the food with their swords while cooking. The dining experience is unique with only one menu item
offered in an endless variety of combinations.

Since 1992 Youth Impact has been serving youth who reside in the Ogden community. The program started with handful of young people that needed a safe place and has continuously grown over the years with new faces coming on a regular basis.

Our daily program consists of transporting participants from over 30 schools in Ogden and Weber School Districts. A variety of quality programs are also provided to the participants. Notable areas of the program are in the Learning Center, Arts & Crafts / Garden Area, STEM, Recreational Sports and in the daily mentoring of youth. A hot dinner is served every evening, and participants are given a ride home to their front door after each and every Youth Impact sponsored event.
